No.	Questions
1	Clarification for the truth of the news: As the newspaper article basically related to the fact that the KPPU is investigating the Company together with 11 other poultry companies this was not, in the opinion of the Company, a new matter. The fact of the KPPU investigation has already been disclosed to the public and shareholders of the Company.However, the Company wishes to elaborate for clarity that the KPPU has on Thursday 3 March 2016, commenced preliminary examination of the Company and the other 11 poultry companies, in relation to the culling of parent stock DOCs in 2015 which was directed by the Director General of Animal Husbandry. In accordance with KPPU procedure, the preliminary examination is a period of 30 working days following which a decision will be made as to whether to cease investigations, or to progress investigations to Further Examination. As the 2015 culling action was directed by the Director General of Animal Husbandry, the Company does not expect to be penalized for complying with the directions of the Director General of Animal Husbandry.The company will continue to monitor the situation and make such further clarifications as may be necessary.

2	Information / other important events that material and may affect to the viability of the company and can affect the company's stock price.  In the Company knowledge, no other important event(s) that material and may affect to the viability of the Company and can affect the company's stock price.
